

You are invited to the
Algonquin to Adirondacks Conservation Association's Speakers' Forum:

ENVIRONMENTAL EQUITY

How do we protect the interests of those who have no voices: the very young, generations yet unborn? Plants and animals have no voices. Are they entitled to equity? What does equity mean?

Featuring

Gord Miller, Environmental Commissioner of Ontario

Henry Lickers, Environmental Science Officer of the Mohawk Council of Akwesasne

May 2, 2009

1:00 to 4:30 p.m.

Lecture Hall 1102, Biosciences Complex, Queen's University, 116 Barrie Street, Kingston Ontario

No charge

(donations gratefully accepted)

Refreshments will be served

Limited seating on a first come, first served basis.
Please r.s.v.p. to rljhoward@kos.net or phone Lisa Howard
(613) 359-5768

