

WORLD FISH MIGRATION DAY
CONNECTING FISH,
RIVERS AND PEOPLE
May 17th, 2016

As part of the World Fish Migration Day (WFMD) global initiative, a group of young and dynamic fisheries researchers from Carleton University are hosting a pub talk and trivia!

Join us at this free event for complementary food, pub talk by Ethan Huner and trivia! The talk will be followed by a “mingle hour” to network with the speaker and others in attendance.

Ethan Huner

Ethan Huner is a professional naturalist, with 15 years of experience teaching and interpreting natural history from Nova Scotia to New York City, to Algonquin Provincial Park. Ethan is currently employed as a Resource Technician with the Algonquins of Ontario Consultation Office in Pembroke and works tirelessly with Provincial and Federal agencies, hydroelectric power producers, First Nation communities, and public interest groups to bring awareness of the Algonquin cultural relationship to the American eel.

Join us at The Lieutenant's Pump on May 17th, 2016!
Talk and trivia begins at 6pm.
